

MUSEUM of the Peace Corps Experience

Volunteer Position: Website Designer

Vision: The Museum of the Peace Corps Experience envisions connecting people around the world to inspire service and peace, showing that our common humanity is more fundamental than the cultures and ideas that separate us.

Mission: The Museum of the Peace Corps Experience collects and preserves stories and objects of material culture donated by volunteers who serve in communities around the globe. It fosters cultural understanding through education and promotes research on the impact of Peace Corps, encouraging visitors to serve—wherever they live, however they can.

Title: Website Designer

Purpose: Evaluate the appearance and efficacy of pages on the Museum of the Peace Corps Experience (MPCE) website. Prepare recommendations to make each page easy to scan, more attractive, and efficient.

Responsibilities:

- Collaborate with Website Team and external consultant to develop attractive, functional pages.
- Assess comparable museum websites, increase frequency of views, and enable interactions between viewers, stories, and digital photos of objects.
- Collaborate with collections, exhibits, and stories team members to develop compelling content that engages audiences with the Museum collection.
- Develop relationships with colleagues inside and outside the Museum; recommend processes for maintaining website design.

Time: 2-6 hours per week, for approximately 6 months

Location: As a remote volunteer, communicates with Team members online

Reports To: Website Team Leader

Appointment: Minimum of 6 months; continues if needed for further assessments

Qualifications:

- Bachelor's Degree preferred; current students may volunteer.
- At least 2 years of website design experience, preferably with WordPress platforms.
- Expert knowledge of evolving website trends and tools.
- Visual design skills, how to balance photographs, graphic design, colors and text.

Support Provided: Orientation/onboarding; handbook/manual/welcome packet; weekly/monthly virtual meetings with volunteers.
